

Fermented Huai?Chinese Yam Powder

Product Information

Description	Fermented Huai?Chinese Yam Powder is refined from authentic Huai?Chinese yam through solid?state fermentation by composite probiotics, followed by inactivation. Fermentation degrades macromolecular starch and polysaccharides into small?molecule fragments for better nutrient bioavailability. Rich in metabolic organic acids and active peptides, it benefits intestinal microecological balance and maintains intestinal mucosal health. Fine?textured with mild flavor, it fits multiple food systems including meal replacements, solid beverages and baked goods.
